Looking for the perfect home with all the living on one level? The Charlotte III ranch is the home for you. The open floor plan of the family room, dining room and u-shaped kitchen make staying connected with family that much easier. The cathedral ceiling and the warmth of the fireplace are details that everyone can enjoy. Want a little private time, the study is a great place to get away to concentrate and relax. Whether you have children or overnight guests, the two additional bedrooms right off the foyer are ready to accommodate them, and there is an Jack-n-Jill bath optional for direct access from each bedroom. The owner's suite, with a tray ceiling and private luxury bath, lets you rejuvenate from the stresses of the day, and also has a large walk-in closet to help you stay organized.

Don't forget about the three-car attached garage, making it quick to unload the groceries or all the items from the kids activities. The convenience of the first floor laundry helps to get the daily chores done and out of the way.
