This is where cutting-edge design meets outstanding affordability. The Thompson is the only plan at the Crossings to offer one-floor living with no steps. Enter directly from the garage or covered porch. The open plan translates into more space to live and to entertain. The efficient kitchen design places everything within easy reach. The snack bar has ample space to serve four people, while the dining area can comfortably accommodate six persons. The great room is large enough for plenty of seating, a media center and desk. The two bedrooms are separated by the living area to maximize privacy.
